ORDER

11 The court has received the attached letter from Mark Rosencrantz, Esq., counsel for Plaintiff
12 Alutiiq International Solutions, LLC. Mr. Rosencrantz seeks clarification of the Order (#193) which sets
13 the hearing for May 19, 2015.

14 The hearing scheduled for May 19, 2015 is not an evidentiary hearing. If, on May 19, 2015, the 15 court determines that additional evidence is needed to decide Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default
16 Judgment (#185) and Defendants' Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Application for 17 Default Judgment (#187), an evidentiary hearing will be scheduled for a future date.

18 DATED this 30th day of April, 2015.

Re: Alutiiq International Solutions, LLC v. OIC Marianas, et al.
Case No. 2:10-cv-01104-JAD-VCF – Order [ECF 193]

Dear Judge Ferenbach:

I write this letter to seek guidance on your preferred format for the upcoming May 19, 2015 hearing on Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default Judgment [ECF 185] and Defendants' Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Application for Default Judgment [ECF 187] in the above referenced matter.

Your recent Order setting the hearing [ECF 193] sets a time and date, but does not indicate whether you wish simply to hear argument, or whether you would like to receive witnesses testimony. Alutiiq International Solutions is ready and willing to provide witnesses on any topic that would be helpful to you in ruling. However, as Alutiiq is based in Anchorage, AK, advance travel preparations need to be made. As a result, Alutiiq seeks any guidance you can provide on this issue.

Moreover, after receiving your Order, I spoke by telephone to counsel for the Defendants, and he indicated that witnesses he may call in the event you wish to hear live testimony may also need to travel to Las Vegas. Given that, he too would appreciate knowing your thoughts and preferences.
